Subject: Suspicious Person

The Oshkosh Police Department is alerting citizens of a subject who may be posing as an alarm employee that had attempted to enter a home in Oshkosh.

At 12:22 p.m. on Wednesday, March 20, 2013, a citizen in Oshkosh reported that they encountered a subject at the back door of their home in the 400 block of W. New York Ave.

The subject, described by the citizen as a black male, 6'+, mid 30's, wearing a long tan coat and a hat, said he had paperwork in reference to the citizens alarm system and wanted the citizen to open the door and take the paperwork. The citizen refused to open the door even though the subject was persistent in having the door opened. The subject eventually left in an unknown direction.

Oshkosh Police Officers checked the area, but did not locate the subject.

If this subject is observed in your neighborhood, do not let the subject into your home and contact the Oshkosh Police Department immediately at (920) 236-5700 or call 911 if the subject attempts to enter your home.

Anyone having information in regards to this subject should call the Oshkosh Police Department at (920) 236 5700.
