Subject: Suspicious Person Update - Identified

The Oshkosh Police Department has been in contact with the subject who was reported on Thursday, March 21, 2013 as a possible suspicious person posing as an alarm employee in the 400 block of W. New York Ave. in Oshkosh.

The subject called and spoke with the Oshkosh Police Department on Thursday evening. The male subject said he was checking on previous customer accounts in the Oshkosh area. The alarm company confirmed the subject is an employee for them and the citizen was contacted and advised of this information.

The Oshkosh Police Department considers this incident closed.

As a reminder to all citizens, if you are not sure who someone is that may be calling at your door, you do not have to let that person inside your home. The subject should have some form of identification on them from the company that they are representing. If you feel this is not legitimate, do not let the person into your home. Contact the company to confirm this person is an employee of theirs.

If you have questions in regards to this media release, please contact me. Thank you.
