Subject: Daytime Burglary

The Oshkosh Police Department is investigating a daytime burglary that occurred on Friday, October 4, 2013 at the Jirschele Residence, 1798 Hunters Glen Drive in Oshkosh.

Approximately $10,000 in jewelry was taken in the burglary. Jewelry items included rings, necklaces and bracelets. The majority of the jewelry items belonged to the homeowner's daughter, Ali, who died in August of 2013.

The items were removed from the residence in an Oshkosh West Cross Country duffel bag, which is blue and white in color.

Entry into the home was gained through a door. The perpetrator knew the location of the jewelry as this was the only area that was disturbed in the home.

The homeowner would like to see this jewelry returned as it has great sentimental value to them.

If anyone has information about this incident they are highly encouraged to contact Detective Hinke at the Oshkosh Police Department, (920) 236-5703.
