Subject: Oshkosh Police Training Exercise at Christine Ann Center

The Oshkosh Police Department, in conjunction with the Christine Ann Center, will be holding a police training exercise at the Christine Ann Center in Oshkosh on Friday, January 17, 2014 from about 1pm to 3:30pm.

The training exercise will be primarily held inside of the Christine Ann Center building.

The training exercise is used to assist staff at the Christine Ann Center in the event of a police emergency. The training is also used to help officer's familiarize themselves with the building.

'Police Training in Progress' signs will be displayed on the day of the training.

Traffic will not be re-routed during the training exercise and all streets adjacent to the center will be available for travel. Pedestrian traffic adjacent to the center should be alerted to the 'Police Training in Progress' signs being placed in the area.

If you have questions about this media release, please contact Officer Joe Nichols.
