MEDIA RELEASE

The Oshkosh Police Department is investigating the theft of a donation jar from Walgreens, 950 S. Koeller St. in Oshkosh that occurred Thursday, May 1, 2014 at about 8:45 pm.

The donation jar was for Juvenile Diabetes, a group that Walgreens is helping to sponsor.

The pictures included with this e-mail show two male suspects entering the store at about 8:41 pm. The two suspects walked to the front counter and as one of the males distracted the employee, the other male took the donation jar and placed it in his jacket.

The two males left the store without purchasing any items. There was $25 to $50 in the donation jar.

The male who took the donation jar is described as being white, mid to late 20's, wearing blue jeans, a black jacket and a black and yellow baseball cap. He was wearing glasses and had a scruffy beard. The second male, who distracted the employee, was described as being white, wearing blue jeans, a white T-shirt and a black jacket.
