Subject: Bomb Threat Arrest

The Oshkosh Police Department was alerted on Sunday, November 2, 2014 at about 8:09 PM by the Olive Garden restaurant in Oshkosh that someone had made a bomb threat via the telephone.

The restaurant was evacuated and Oshkosh Police checked the interior and exterior of the building not finding any clandestine objects.

The investigation showed a traceable phone number listing back to a 47 year-old female from Oshkosh. Oshkosh Police determined the call was made by the 47 year-old female and that she had been recently terminated from her job at that location.

The female was arrested for making a bomb threat and was taken to the Winnebago County Jail.
