Community Policing

Officer's Ott and Flaig mentored students at Washington and Franklin Elementary Schools, respectively.

Theft

A 53 year-old male from Oshkosh was cited for theft in the 2000 block of S. Koeller St. after he was observed stealing money from his employer. He was released after being cited.

Community Policing

Officer Bobby Krohn met with the Oshkosh Police Department Explorers.

Disturbance

A 32 year-old female from Oshkosh was arrested in the 1800 block of Ashland St. for disorderly conduct, resisting an officer and damage to property after she caused a disturbance at her residence. As she was being arrested by officers, she attempted to bite an officer, kicked a wall, and attempted to pull away from officers. She was taken to Aurora Hospital to be medically cleared for jail when she kicked a camera out of an officer's hands. The camera fell to the ground and broke. She was taken to jail.

Drugs

A 22 year-old female and 27 year-old male, both from Oshkosh, were arrested in the 1900 block of Rath Lane after officers responded to a suspicious incident call. The female was arrested for possession of drug paraphernalia and the male was arrested for possession of prescription drugs without a prescription. They were both taken to jail.
