MEDIA RELEASE

The Oshkosh Police Department, in conjunction with the Wisconsin Division of Criminal Investigation, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms and the Oshkosh Fire Department continue the investigation into a fire that occurred at a warehouse at 620 Leeward Ct West in Oshkosh that was reported on Friday, November 6, 2015 at 10:15 PM.

During this ongoing investigation, Oshkosh Police arrested a 42 year-old male from Neenah, WI on Sunday, November 8, 2015 for burglary and arson. The male was taken to the Winnebago County Jail. His name will be released after he has been formally charged.

Oshkosh Police are asking those persons that had business property or personal property inside of the warehouse to please be patient while the criminal investigation continues. If a person had property inside the structure and have not notified the warehouse owner or police as of yet, they are asked to please call the Oshkosh Police Department at (920) 236-5700 and a list of owners will be developed. Oshkosh Police will make contact with you as soon as possible after the criminal investigation is completed. Thank you.

No further information is being released at this time.
