Trespass to Residence – 1200 block of Washington Ave.

A homeowner confronted a male inside their residence in the 1200 block of Washington Ave. The male suspect was described as white, wearing a black fleece jacket, had some facial hair, a tattoo on the left side of their neck, white tennis shoes, and a dark stocking cap. He was further described as being about 5'8" and in his mid twenties. The male suspect knocked on the door of the residence several times and went to the side door and entered. The homeowner confronted the male along with a dog. The male fled from the home in an unknown direction.

If you encounter someone at your door that you cannot identify, do not open the door for that person. Call police if you need assistance. If you see a suspicious person at your neighbor's home, call police.

The best protocol is to lock all your doors, whether you are at home or away.
