Subject: Stolen Vehicle Suspects

The Oshkosh Police Department is investigating a stolen vehicle from a parking lot near Interstate 41 and W. 9th Av. in Oshkosh on March 8, 2016. A witness saw the man and woman steal the red Cadillac. Investigators also obtained video of the suspects in the area of the crime. The vehicle has been recovered in Milwaukee but police are still looking for the suspects.

A woman parked her 2002 red Cadillac in the Kwik Trip parking lot on March 8, 2016 around 6:45PM. She left her vehicle running while she went into the store. A man got in the driver's seat and a woman got in the passenger seat of the car and drove it away without the owner's permission. The car was located the next day in Milwaukee and returned to the owner.

Suspect #1 Description:
Black Male
Short dreadlock style hair
Wearing a black hoodie with the hood up
Dark blue jean pants
Red colored shoes.

Suspect #2 Description:
White Female
Wearing a white and gray jacket style sweater
Long light brown or blond hair
Blue jeans.

The Oshkosh Police Department is requesting help from citizens in identifying the two suspects. Video of the suspects has been posted to the Department's website at www.oshkoshpd.com. If you have information related to this incident please contact Detective Robertson of the Oshkosh Police Department at (920) 236-5723.
