Subject: Stolen Vehicles Recovered

On Wednesday, August 31, 2016, Oshkosh Police recovered two stolen vehicles.

In the first recovery, Oshkosh Police, working a WI Bureau of Transportation seatbelt grant, stopped a vehicle at W. Murdock Ave. and Beech St. for violating a red light signal at Algoma Blvd. and W. Murdock Ave. After investigating the wrong plates on the 2015 Chevy truck, the officer found the vehicle was stolen from Shawano, WI. The 34 year-old male driver from Appleton, WI was arrested for Operating a Motor Vehicle Without Owner's Consent. He was taken to jail. The vehicle was impounded.

In the second recovery, Oshkosh Police were at a residence in the 900 block of Jackson St. attempting to locate a 14 year-old runaway female from Green Bay. Oshkosh Police were notified that a vehicle may have been stolen from Green Bay and was in the 900 block of Wright St. When an officer arrived on Wright St. a 2010 Dodge truck was located and found to have been stolen from De Pere, WI. The vehicle was impounded. A 53 year-old female living at the residence in the 900 block of Jackson St., was arrested for violating probation during the incident. The runaway was not located.
