The Oshkosh Police Department is investigating an assault that occurred on Tuesday, September 14, 2016 at about 3:30 AM. The incident happened in an apartment in the 1600 Block of Oregon St. and the suspect is in custody.

An Oshkosh woman was assaulted by a 23 year old Oshkosh man on September 14, 2016. They were at an apartment in the 1600 Block of Oregon St in the early morning hours of September 14, 2016. The suspect suddenly became aggressive toward the woman and physically assaulted her. She was able to escape to another room in the apartment and she locked herself in that room to get away from the suspect. She broke the glass in the window to get the attention of neighbors in an attempt to get help. A person in the area called the police after they heard the glass break and the victim yelling for help. Officers arrived and found the suspect had fled the scene. They administered first aid and requested the Oshkosh Fire Department paramedics for assistance. They took over medical care for the victim who was transported for medical treatment.

The suspect was located at about 06:15 AM and arrested on the South Side of Oshkosh at a residence where he has been staying. He was arrested for attempted 1st degree homicide, 1st degree sexual assault, false imprisonment, and substantial battery.
