Subject: Roundabout Opening Jackson St. and Murdock Ave. Changed to Friday, June 25, 2010

MEDIA RELEASE

The Oshkosh Police Department is notifying residents that the roundabout at Jackson St. and W. Murdock Ave will not be open today, but will be open starting Friday, June 25, 2010, time unknown.

This delay is for changes that are being made to assist motorists in navigating the roundabout in the best possible way.

Oshkosh Police Officers will be at the roundabout for the next several weeks to assist motorists in making their way through the roundabout.

This is an educational campaign for drivers and is not a high enforcement detail by officers. Officers observing dangerous driving in the area will take police action, but the campaign is to assist with drivers in learning to maneuver through the roundabout.

Citizens may go to the police department web site at www.oshkoshpd.com or the Wisconsin Department of Transportation at www.dot.state.wi.us/safety/motorist/roaddesign/roundabout.htm and check out brochures and other brochures on the roundabout.

If citizens have other questions about the roundabout, they may call Officer Joe Nichols at 236-5700.
