Individual Member Pictures:

We will be taking new individual pictures at our February Meeting. These pictures will be used for display on the Auxiliary Police Volunteers photo wall outside the Erickson Meeting Room.

All Auxiliary Officers are encouraged to attend the February meeting.

Uniform of the day will be:

- Long sleeve uniform shirt, with necktie if you were issued one.
- Brass cleaned and polished.
- Name tag attached above the right hand pocket seam.
- Whistle lanyard
- Uniform trousers
- No duty belt

Personnel:

Congratulations to Jake Wallner and Eddie Wick!

Both Jake and Eddie have been hired by the Department as CSO's. The experience they've gained as Auxiliary Officer's has assisted them in being selected to fill the open Community Service Officer positions; another step in their law enforcement career goals.

Jake and Eddie will remain with the Unit and be able to work details as their CSO schedule allows.

Personnel:

We are happy to announce two new Auxiliary Officers joining our Unit.

Fred Jaen
Squad C
Badge # 29

Fred moved to Wisconsin from New York where he spent 3 Years as an Auxiliary Police Officer for Precinct 107. He enjoys target practice for fun and is currently looking for employment. He is looking to get involved in the community. Fred is very eager to work a lot of assignments overnight details.

Trent Gilbert-Roeder
Squad B
Badge # 30

Trent is a Criminal Justice Student at UWO. He enjoys weight - lifting and sports. Trent is employed at the GAP Outlet.

Congratulations to Adam Lewis!

Adam has recently accepted a position with the State of Wisconsin Department of Corrections as a Correctional Officer. Adam is currently attending the Correctional Department Academy, Fox Lakes Corrections, Kolb Training Center.

Oshkosh Auxiliary Police Meeting Minutes Jan. 13, 2016

Meeting was held in the OPD training room with 20 officers attending.

New officers were introduced. Welcome to Maxine Yang, Fred Jaen II and Trent Gilbert-Roeder.

Training was presented by Lt. Schouten reviewing his video on use of our digital radios, by Lt. O'Bright reviewing his video on fueling our vehicles and by Deputy Chief Footit on the use of the manual guard rails on ramps to I 41.

Details were presented and officers signed up to work them.

Congratulations to OAP Officer Jake Wallner on his becoming an OPD CSO.

Election season is here and could mean candidates might be visiting Oshkosh. If so, our unit might be asked to provide some traffic direction/security.

OPD Chief Smith will be meeting with us as his schedule permits.

Thank you to OPD Officer Derenne for the treat.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted by
Sgt. Mary Knudsen, Unit Secretary

Oshkosh Auxiliary Police Ranking Staff Meeting Minutes Jan. 20, 2016

Meeting was held in the Erickson Room with Chief Suess, Deputy Chief Footit, Capt. Youngbauer, Capt. Gutche, Lt. Schouten, Lt. Oestreich, Lt. O'Bright, Sgt. Knudsen and Sgt. Welch attending. Capt. Schroeder and Sgt. Winkler were excused.

Chief Suess met with OPD Chief Smith and presented an overview of our unit. When Chief Smith's schedule permits, he will be attending one of our unit meetings.

Details from 2015 were reviewed.

February meeting scheduled to meet at the Law Enforcement Center in Appleton. Capt. Gutche will talk with OPD Sgt. Harris about a possible reschedule time incase the weather would be an issue.

Sgts Knudsen and Welch presented the revised proposed Rules and Regulations. They will be made available to the officers for review, discussion and approval.

Garage update noted that the unit has completely moved all vehicles and equipment out of the Osborn garage and now occupy the 3rd St. garage. Access to that garage will be arranged by Deputy Chief Footit.

A discussion on should any health conditions of officers be made known to the appropriate unit personnel incase something would happen was presented . Information on this will be in the newsletter and discussed for consideration at our unit meeting.

The display board could use some updated pictures. Pictures can be submitted to Chief Suess.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted by,

Sgt. Mary Knudsen, Unit Secretary

A Reminder....

From time-to-time we've been made aware of some of our members specific health situations, allergies etc. You are not required to provide this information to us, but we encourage anyone who may have a specific situation to advise your Squad Captain. If you have an episode while working a detail, the more information we have about your specific condition, the faster we'll be able to get you the help you need.
