Saturday, April 14th we experienced a significant snow storm with almost blizzard-like conditions. While driving to report for duty to work the Pub Crawl, Auxiliary Captain Kevin Schouten was involved in a vehicle crash. As a result of that crash, Kevin received a broken collar bone.

Kevin remains unable to return to work while his injuries heal.

I know I speak for the entire Unit when I say we wish Kevin a speedy-recovery...and we are very thankful the accident wasn't even worse!

Please take a moment to contact Kevin by phone, text or e-mail and wish him well. I'm sure he would appreciate it!

Oshkosh Auxiliary Police Meeting Minutes - April 4, 2018

Meeting was held on April 4th, one week earlier, due to a conflict on the regular meeting time. Meeting was held in the training room of OPD with 14 officers attending and 6 officers excused.

Training was presented by Aux. Lt. Welch on Radio Usage and Communication and a review of the equipment in the squad cars. Reminder to always return equipment to the proper place in the squads, remove all refreshment items taken into the squad when done and ALWAYS report any damage or incidents involving any of the squads or vehicles used whether Auxiliary or OPD. Report to OIC or Scott Footit. OIC will call an OPD officer to respond to the scene for follow up.

Detail review and sign up for new details.

Anniversary Dinner is on hold until reservations can be secured. At the present time, there is no Social Committee to attend to that.

Social Committee has been reinstated with Sgt. Shawna Russell indicating that she would take it over and will need others to assist her in that committee. She will work on finding a place and time to have the Anniversary Dinner. Lt. Oestreich, FTO's Kargus and Kirby said they would assist her with the dinner.

Thank you to Sgt. Russell for taking over the Social Committee.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted by

Sgt. Mary Knudsen, Secretary
