Subject: Missing Child Update 3 – Child Found

MEDIA RELEASE

The Oshkosh Police Department is confirming that Justen Sorenson has been found safe at a friend's house in Oshkosh and is being returned to his home.

The Oshkosh Police Department was advised that Justen had gone to the friend's house and fell asleep without the friend's parent knowing that Justen was in the home. The parent of Justen's friend saw the news report of Justen missing and called police.

The Oshkosh Police Department is considering this case closed. At this time, there is no further information to be released.
