Subject: Theft of Alcohol Update - Suspect Arrested

MEDIA RELEASE

The Oshkosh Police Department has arrested a 29 year-old male from Oshkosh for his involvement in numerous thefts of alcohol from a local store. The 29 year-old was also implicated in two gas drive-offs which occurred at an Oshkosh service station earlier this month.

The 29 year-old was arrested in the 2100 block of S. Oakwood Road at about 10:15 a.m. today. He was taken to the Winnebago County Jail for 11 counts of retail theft. He is being referred in to the Winnebago County District Attorney's Office on the two gas drive-off incidents.

The Oshkosh Police Department thanks the media and the citizens for sending out this information and to those individuals who contacted police and gave information.
