Subject: Child Abuse Investigation on Wyldewood

On 08/17/2018 at approximately 4:00PM, the Oshkosh Police Department was investigating a child abuse complaint on Wyldewood Drive, in the City of Oshkosh.

Officers attempted to make contact with the parents of the child, so that the child could be taken into protective custody. The parents of the child were uncooperative with police.

Officers were ultimately able to place both parents into custody. No one was injured at any time during this situation.

A thirty year old female from Oshkosh and a thirty three year old male from Oshkosh were taken into custody for charges relating to this investigation.

The juvenile was removed from the residence and placed into protective custody.

The Oshkosh Police Department continues to work diligently to keep Oshkosh safe.
